FOREIGNERS MUST VEGISTER TONDER COP RULE

PROFERIT LISTED IN PEI-P'ING -- Wen-hui Pao, 21 Sep 19

Pei-p'ing, 20 Scptember -- On 15 September 1949, the Pei-p'ing Scople's Government stipulated that all foreigners who own property in Pei-b'ing will be required to register such property at the Land Office between 15 Soptember and 31 October 1949.

When the property owner, or his representative, comes to the land Office, he is required to give the following information: location or address, type of property, how it is used, its present condition; profit derived from the property, etc.

The Pei-p'ing government also stressed that all property owned directly or indirectly by foreigners shall be reported. Anyons who withholds information or falsifies his report will be prosecuted.

FU-OMOU EMCISTERS FOREIGERES -- Wen-hui Pao, 21 Sep 49

Pei-p'ing, 20 September -- The Public Security Bureau of the Eu-chou People's Government ordered registration of all foreigness in Fu-chou between 9 tark 16 September 1949. During this 8-day period, 112 foreigners registered, including 49 Americans,

Two American missionaries, however, failed to heed this order. One went to Man-p'ing while the other moved her place of abode without first informing the Burscu. The Bureau regrimmeded they for their actions and strongly emphasized that everyone, whether a foreigner or a native Chinese, must conform to all laws set forth by the People's Government.
